

Gladys Anderson Law

June 17, 1909 – June 28, 2002

Gladys Anderson Law, 93, of Clemson Downs, died Friday, June 28.

Born June 17, 1909, in Norwood, Mass., she was the daughter of Ludwig and Gerda Anderson, and grew up in East Walpole, Mass. She graduated with an L.L.B. from Portia Law School of Boston (now the New England School of Law), and was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1933.

She lived most of her life in Massachusetts and New Jersey, and moved to Clemson Downs in 1997.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest W. Law; and is survived by her son, E. Harry Law, his wife, Linda B. Law, and their son, Eric Matthew Law, of Keowee Key, Salem. She will also be missed by her daughter-in-law's parents, Robert and Allison Brody, of Vero Beach, Fla. She leaves many nieces and nephews who have been so kind and loving to her over the years.

She was much beloved by all who knew her, including her many friends and neighbors at Clemson Downs, and Harry's and Linda's friends in the Clemson area.

The family would like to express their sincere gratitude to Dr. Tauqueer Alam and the nurses and aides of the fourth floor of Oconee Memorial Hospital for their kindness to Gladys and her family during her lengthy stay.

Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, July 3, at University Lutheran Church, 111 Sloan St., Clemson. In mid-July, there will be a graveside service in East Walpole, Mass., where she will be interred with other family members.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to the Central-Clemson Branch of Pickens County Library, 105 Commons Way, Central, SC 29630; the University Lutheran Church, P.O. Box 1337, Clemson, SC 29633; or Oconee Memorial Hospital Foundation, 298 Memorial Drive, Seneca, SC 29672.
